

Calling all female identifying LGBTQIA+ people who have been in a relationship or dated other women and are aged between 16-30

Now is your time to get your experiences shared in a progressive, celebratory music video!

The song, soon to be released, is created by one of our talented, lived experience creatives. The aim of the piece is to give a platform to authentic experiences of sapphic love, empower queer women to reclaim the media surrounding their love and to be a real celebration of the LGBTQIA+ community. Throughout history women/women relationships have been belittled and ignored, now is the time to be heard, be seen and be supported.

To make this groundbreaking piece, we need equally as groundbreaking people involved... YOU! We would love to see videos, photographs and artwork/illustrations that you feel celebrate sapphic love and the relationship of 'TOUCH'. Is it hand holding? Is it sharing lip gloss? Secret messages? Whatever you feel highlights what your experience as a LGBTQIA+ female in the modern world and navigating 'TOUCH', we would love to see it.

Every piece we get sent will be used in the music video, so we do ask that everything is sent in a landscape, video format with a minimum of 3 second footage and a maximum of 1 minute. (If you want illustrations included, please send in 1280 x 720 where possible). Please note that we will edit the videos in length dependent on how much footage we need but your artwork/illustrations will not be tampered with in anyway.

We want all of your stories to be shared through this, and so if you require any additional support in order to get your piece to us, get in touch Lucy (info below).

Please send your submission to lucy@20storieshigh.org.uk or via DMs on our social media channels.
