

Liverpool-based 20 Stories High Seek New...

Technical Stage Manager

to join our autumn tour TOUCHY + ANTHOLOGY, to manage the technical elements of the production, in particular mixing live music involving a rapper and 5 vocalists/singers using backing tracks.

20 Stories High believe that “everybody's got a story to tell... and their own way of telling it...”

We make theatre and art with and for underrepresented young people/young adults, emerging artists and world class professionals. We create bold, heartfelt, and unique theatre experiences that enable social change- collaborating with young people and young adults to develop the stories they want to tell through the artforms they own and want to see.

We are an Arts Council NPO and have established ourselves as one of the leading national young people's theatre companies.
