Welcome to Arts Council England

To use the application portal you must be running the most recent version of your internet browser. To check this please click www.whatismybrowser.com. If your browser is out of date follow the instructions on screen.

Applications to programmes listed in Browse Programmes should be made using this online application portal. If you have already registered with us on this system, please log in using your username and password. If you do not already have a username and password for this system, please click create profile. Please read the guidance for applicants for the appropriate programme before you begin.

By using the system to make an applicant profile, and/or make an application, you are agreeing that:

- You will keep your own contact details up to date by editing your applicant profile. You will contact us to request changes to the Applicant name and / or legal status fields (please see the guidance sheet on our user accounts and applicant profiles page for more information). If you have a live grant you need our written permission to change your organisation legal structure.
- By adding a user to your applicant profile, please be aware that you are giving them the same permissions to carry out actions using the system that you have. For example, this means that all users who are added to your applicant profile:
 - can write and submit an application on that applicant's behalf;
 - will receive notifications about that applicant's ongoing projects;
 - can view all current and previous applications and post-award submissions for that applicant;
 - can submit reports and payment requests;
 - can request withdrawal of a grant;
 - can amend the information held in the applicant profile;
- For individuals, only the named applicant can accept a grant. Other users are not allowed to accept on behalf of an individual applicant unless they have power of attorney. For organisations, only users with delegated authority can accept a grant on behalf of that organisation.
- The user who first sets up an applicant profile is the 'administrator' of that applicant profile, and is responsible for adding other users as appropriate.

If you have forgotten your log on details, please click on 'Forgot your password' or contact us. Please do not create a duplicate applicant profile as this may delay the processing of your application.

If you would like to contact us click contact us.

Do you consider yourself to have a disability or barrier? Click here for details about access support we can offer.

3. Fill in details of the main Grantium user. The User Name will be used to log in to your Grantium account in the future and will also appear on all your applications, so should be your name or your company name.

Welcome to Arts Council England

This is your user account home page in the Front Office Portal. Here you can create an individual or organisation applicant profile, update your contact information and make applications to Arts Council England programmes. For full instructions, please see our 'How to create and manage your account and applicant profile' guidance available on our Grantium support page.

To make your first application you need to create an applicant profile. The applicant is the individual or organisation who can enter into a grant agreement if the application is successful. Individuals should create an applicant profile in their legal name, not their stage/artist name. Individual applicants need to have a bank account which matches their applicant profile name. Organisation applicant profiles have an applicant name (trading name) field and a legal name field. Organisations need a bank account in the UK registered in the name of the organisation.

Creating an applicant profile

Note - each individual or organisation should have only one applicant profile (with the exception of universities or local authorities). Please do not create a duplicate applicant profile as this may delay the processing of your application. If you or your organisation already have an applicant profile, click browse programmes to start making an application.

To set up an applicant profile for an individual or organisation, click browse programmes here or in the left menu bar. On the next screen click the register icon next to the funding opportunity you would like to apply for.

(If you have started to create an applicant profile and are returning to work on it, select applicants here or in the left menu bar. On the next screen click the open icon beside the relevant applicant name.)

Validating your applicant profile

Once you have submitted your applicant profile it will need to be validated by us before you can begin your application. This should take up to five working days but please allow up to 10 working days for your applicant profile to be validated before you begin your eligibility questionnaire and application form. Once your applicant profile has been validated we will send you a confirmation email.

Linking another user to an existing applicant profile

Users can be linked to several different applicant profiles. Once you have created an applicant profile, you may want other users to have access to that profile.

If you wish to make an application on behalf of an individual or organisation that has an existing applicant profile (created by another user), you will need to get your user account linked to that applicant profile.

Please see the 'How to create and manage your account and applicant profile' guidance available on our Grantium support page or use the contact us link here or in the left menu bar.

Developing your creative practice

Developing Your Creative Practice offers awards from £2,000 to £10,000 to support development opportunities for cultural or creative practitioners based in England.

In the application form we will ask you a series of questions about different parts of your project including quality, management and finance. This gives us information about you, the development work you want to do and your budget. We will use the information you give us in your application form to decide whether we will offer you a grant.

For advice and useful information relating to this programme visit the Developing your creative practice page.

Developing Your Creative Practice

Eligibility questionnaire

Before you begin an application form for Developing Your Creative Practice, we want to make sure that your proposed activity meets some of our basic eligibility criteria.

Developing Your Creative Practice can support practitioners working in any of our supported disciplines to undertake a self-directed period of development. You can apply for between £2,000 and £10,000.

The programme is only open to individuals (or small groups of creative practitioners who can demonstrate that they normally collaborate in their work, with one individual taking the lead for the application).

There are restrictions on the activity we can support. The following screens will take you through some basic points of eligibility for Developing Your Creative Practice, but this questionnaire is not a full eligibility check.

After the deadline for the round has passed, we will conduct a full eligibility check within 15 working days.

You should read the Eligibility section of the Guidance for applicants carefully before starting

16. Complete the answers to the eligibility questions as appropriate.

Personal Access means money you need for access needs or to support you with your work for example a BSL interpreter.

The amount listed on this pay is the full amount you are asking for as per your budget.

Developing Your Creative Practice

Developing Your Creative Practice offers awards from £2,000 to £10,000 to support development opportunities for individual cultural and creative practitioners based in England.

The application form asks you a series of questions about different parts of your project including quality, management and finance. This gives us information about you, the development work you want to do and your budget. We will use the information you give us in your application form to decide whether we will offer you a grant.

The next two screens are autofilled with information you have already provided. If you need to make any amendments to this information, you will need to go back to the Applicants section and edit your applicant profile.

Throughout the application portal, any items marked * must be completed.

All our text boxes have a character limit. Please stick to this character limit as any additional text won't be saved.

Please read the Guidance for applicants before making your application.
